

PUBLIC LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN
THE LEDGER.

"THE GOLDEN."

HALF A CENTURY ON THE VOYAGE OF LIFE.

Mr. and Mrs. Enes Myall Observe the Fiftieth Anniversary of a Very Happy Event Which Occurred in Maysville, Ky.

The Big Sandyans are happy, because there is a proposition before the Kentucky Legislature to make it a penitentiary offense to remove the brands from logs.

The lady who has an advertisement in THE LEDGER for a position for herself and daughter will call at this office she will hear of several good places where she can obtain a good home.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Kate Teresa McCarthy took place from St. Patrick's Church at 9 o'clock this morning, with impressive ceremonies. The remains were followed to the beautiful cemetery at Washington by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Death of Anna Mountjoy.

W. W. Ball received a telegram from Cincinnati announcing the death of Anna Mountjoy that city last night at 8 o'clock.

The remains will be brought to this for burial. Further particulars could not be learned at the hour of going to press.

Black Patti in Maysville.

Madame Maggie Carries Anderson, the peerless soprano, with a world wide fame, won before Kings, Queens and Princes in Europe, while she traveled with the famous Fish Jubilee Singers, will appear for the first time in Maysville at the Plymouth Baptist Church to night.

Home talent will assist. Admission, single person, 15 cents. Children under 12 years, 10 cents.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to this effect.

John B. Holton is on a business trip West.

Frank Devine was in Ashland a few days ago.

Judge Harbison has returned from West Point.

S. D. McDowell has been spending a few days at Mt. Olivet.

Miss Anna Fraze has returned from a visit to Miss Carrick of Bourbon county.

Langhorne Fox of Dover is visiting friends in the Washington neighborhood.

West Union Defender.—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brodt are the guests of friends and relatives at Maysville, Ky.

Miss Anna Burke of Mayslick has been visiting the Misses Higgins of "Camp Kenton" for a few days.

Mr. Olivet Democrat.—Pickett Wood, representing George T. Wood, Druggist, was in town Tuesday.

Alex. D. Clegg, Assistant Superintendent of Life Insurance Co., and John Walsh returned from Louisville this morning.

Thomas Gooch of Mt. Gilead and Robert Keys of Orangeburg attended the social gathering at the home of Miss Lula Young Thursday evening.

Have You Seen Kate?

"Kate" is the mascot of the Boston. She is a dog about a year old, that has proved the faithful companion of the present crew of the Boston, since her own memory runneth not to the contrary.

She has clung to that crew in its various migrations ever since it left the Fleetwood. She clings to the crew still.

Kate is known at all the landings along the river, where the Boston stops, and will often go ashore and prowl around for days at a time.

But once her curiosity is satisfied, back she comes to the landing to wait for the Boston. There is no good in trying to drive her away, for wait she will in spite of everything.

When at last the boat comes into sight Kate is all attention. As the boat draws near she watches it eagerly.

The moment it is within her reach there is a dying leaf through the air, a black dog drops upon the deck and Kate is among her friends again.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White SWINDLE—FAIR;

Blue—RAIN or SNOW;

Black ABOVE—TWILL WARMER

or TWILL COLDER;

Union Black's shown—no change

we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

OLD AND NEW.

The "sturdy oak and clinging vine" are out of fashion. The modern maiden stands alone, with triumph on her brow.

She buffets bravely with the world, she faces as best she can, and gayly makes her way through life with a spirit of man.

Her broken yoke of servitude she tramples 'neath her feet;

Her ancient tyrant she defies, and finds her freedom sweet.

Yet sometimes, when the road is hard, and things are not rather black,

The desolate woman's thoughts insist on harking back.

The shattered life seems very fair amid earth's crowding life,

And restful the old-fashioned plan—a man to pay the bills!

Seats are now on sale for "The Little Tycoon."

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Opera-house to-night.

OLD-FASHIONED Buckwheat and pure Maple Syrup at Q. W. Geisel's.

DON'T fail to attend "Uncle Tom" to-night. It may be your last chance.

MILD, but always effective, Ayer's Pills are indispensable as a family medicine, both for children and adults.

DR. MATTHEW T. SCOTT, a prominent Lexington physician, died in Texas, where he had gone for health. Aged 39 and leaves a family.

DAVID SMITH, one of Vanceburg's Councilmen, was arrested last week for being drunk and was fined $3 and costs. Good example for "atty Dads" to set.

HON. J. S. PUGH and his nephew, W. B. Pugh, have prepared a bill which will be introduced by Hon. S. J. Pugh in the Senate, entitled "an act to establish and organize State Industrial Schools, one for girls and one for boys."

Does your subscription to THE LEDGER expire Wednesday? If so why wouldn't it be a good plan to drop in and see us. If you drop in and see us the "Tramp" won't drop in and see you. Come on at a time or all together. We will gladly welcome you.

THE man who is looking for an excuse for not attending church will find one in the statement that a Chicago Divinity student went to sleep during a sermon on a recent Sunday, and could not be awakened for 60 hours. This excuse will not be sufficient here, however, for we have no preachers of that kind.

Real Estate Transfers.

John Duley and wife to Mrs. W. H. Frederick, a lot on North side of Second street, Sixth Ward; consideration, $1,000.

Charles C. Dobyns and wife to W. B. Mathews, undivided half interest in a lot on Northwest corner of Second and Bank streets; consideration about $2,000.

A Pleasant Evening.

Miss Lula Young of the Sixth Ward very pleasantly entertained on last Thursday evening. Quite a number of her most intimate friends were present. The popular game euchre was played until a late hour, when refreshments were served, and the happy guests returned home glad of having spent so pleasant an evening.

Gave Birth.

John Parker, agent, and James V. McNamara, nephew of Bishop McNamara the anti-Catholic lecturer, were taken from jail at Kansas City Saturday and charged before Justice W. R. Worthy in the Court room at the time for the lecturer's hearing. They took a chance of venue to Justice Nichols' Court at Independence and gave bail with Attorneys Eliot and Burnham.

Christian Church Meeting.

The large auditorium of the Christian Church was crowded to its full seating capacity almost last night to hear Rev. E. B. Cade's sermon on the object of the Great Preacher, Jesus. It was an earnest and eloquent discourse. Three persons united by letter, making twenty-four editions during the meeting. Services to-night at 7:30. The public cordially invited.

The theme to-night will be, "The Best is Always Difficult of Attainment."

Is Bound to Come.

A gentleman of Mt. Olivet is in receipt of information from a prominent gentleman of Dover stating that the C. and O. Railroad is about to consider the construction of a branch line, either to the south or to the north of the town or steam to Mt. Olivet from Dover.

The Editor of "The Mt. Olivet Democrat" has also seen correspondence from Baltimore capitalists in regard to running a line to Maysville. It's only a matter of time when such a road will be paid for. It will be a demand for it.

The Factory Girl.

The performance of the "Factory Girl" at the Opera-house next week will be played as benefit of the poor. The cast will include Miss Mae Power, Miss Ages Green, Miss Mary Wals, Miss Alice Wheeler, and Messrs. George M. Adams, Charles Rife, Will Stockton, Harry Curran and Charles Trapp.

The play is not a new one by any means, being an old society play that abounds in comedy situations and has a pretty and intricate plot. Nearly all the cast will introduce specialties.

HIGH-LIFE WEDDING.

Charged With Seduction, He Weds the Girl and Walks Off.

This life is curiously made up.

On Saturday, George G. alias "Tony" Lane was before Judge Wadsworth on a charge of having seduced him with seduction.

Miss Nettie Skinner, a very pretty girl residing on Short street, was the complainant.

After hearing the evidence Judge Wadsworth held Lane in $500 for his appearance at the Circuit Court, in default of which he was sent to jail.

A few hours meditation and visions of a term at Frankfort softened the mind and heart of Lane, and he concluded that marriage would not be a failure if released him from Bob Kirk's castle.

He procured a license, sent for Miss Skinner, and the Rev. Jacob Miller made ready the man and wife in the Clerk's Office about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride departed by one route, and the groom by another, with no apparent reason of traveling life's pathway together.

passengers hopped out and passed through the village, but when it passed again the pilgrims found it convenient to take another ride, which brought them to the Baptist Church at Maysville.

At this second visit to Maylack Enes was employed by Henry Vanney to work at the blacksmith shop at $10 per month. Working eleven months, collecting the $110 due, he sent $100 of it to England for the passage fee of his brother Jonas to join to us.

Enes at this time bought a set of blacksmith tools, paid $100 for them, borrowed the money from George Riley at 12% per cent. stake-and-riding it with David Jameson and Elias Anderson, Elders' of the Christian Church, as securities, which was paid in six months by the borrower.

Enes, a Sardisite giving the ground he occupied erected a shop.

In the following January 27th, 1814, he was married to Miss Sallie Ellis, who is a native of Nicholas county. She was a Christian girl, and was baptized by Elder John T. Johnson.

Six months after marriage he bought the property of Henry Vanney, consisting of house and lot, shop and lot, known as the Cleary property.

Jones Myall having been here some time, joined his brother Enes in sending to the old country for their father and sister at a cost of $200—this concluding the family except one sister in England.

From this time labor, economy and integrity have made the family what it is to day in influence and wealth.

To this time Enes and Sallie there were born eight children—seven living and one dead—three boys and five girls, four married, three single; grandchilden, seventeen living, four dead; great-grandchildren, two, both living. Joined the Christian Church by letter from Presbytery under Dr. R. C. Ricketts in 1816, by which time he was also married. Forty years have been spent as officer of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Myall had the advantage of being the son and daughter of parents in reduced circumstances. If they lacked the motive of ambition they felt the stimulus of necessity and their fifty years of married happiness and business career have been a success. They have rounded the circle of life completely. Long may the devoted couple survive, ornaments of home, and examples of industry, economy and integrity.

A Barrel of Money.

Jack Rogers, an old farmer of Mercer county, wealthy and eccentric, became lame and fell at the prevailing unsteadiness of the banks during the financial flurry. He had $4,000 on deposit, which he concluded to put in a safe place. He withdrew it from the bank and put it in a barrel of shelled corn in his barn. Now he would be very much pleased to get his hands on the corn again, and doubtless be willing to entrust it to the keeping of the bank once more, but some person, unknown, who found it is keeping it for him.

The Augusta Reporter.

The Augusta Reporter thus gets back at its many friends (?) who have been insinuating that the paper would change hands.

"Nearly all of our exchanges have been busy for a week or two announcing that C. B. Morford had bought this paper. We knew all the time there was a mistake somewhere and felt sure that time would reveal to us that we still 'had the half by the tail,' and now it comes in the shape of a card from Mr. Morford in The Mt. Olivet Advance in which he announces his determination to practice law in that little village.

It might be proper to add right here that instead of this paper being sold, it will bloom into a seven column semi-weekly in a few weeks, with Sam Stairs holding down the editorial chair with both feet.

"We are going to make a newspaper or quit the business, and you want to keep your eye on these columns."

CAN THIS BE SO?

Professor Blakeman Ordered From Kirkville, Madison County.

The following dispatch appeared in The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette yesterday:

"Professor B. F. Blakeman, who has been in charge of Elliot Institute at Kirkville, this county, has been compelled to give up his school and leave town. He recently employed a Miss Hollis of Chicago to come and take charge of the Musical Department of the college, agreeing to pay a certain salary and to retain her during the remainder of the term. She had been teaching but two weeks when Blakeman notified her that his services were not needed. He mistreated her in making settlement. She was very popular among the citizens because indulgent and let him know it became indignant and let him go. It is said he advanced to her to flee. He acted upon their advice and left at once. It is said he came from Mercer county."

Professor Blakeman is a native of Danville and well known in this vicinity, having often visited friends in Maysville who are slow to believe all the above is true.

HOLE IN THE GROUND.

Accidentally Discovered by Fleming Boys While Hunting Rabbits.

A medium sized but extraordinary cave was discovered near Sherrubine, in Fleming county, by two boys in a very peculiar manner, and with an experience that the boys do not soon want to pass through again.

They were out hunting, and chasing a rabbit into a small hole in the ground, they proceeded to dig it out.

After laboring in for a long time they gave it up and started away.

They had not gone far when the earth began to sink behind them, and with a roar a large portion went down as though the bottom had fallen out, leaving an aperture in the surface about the size of a hoghead.

The boys made known what they had done and a party was gotten together and an exploration made.

Joe Black, one of the party, was let down on a rope, and after descending sixty-five feet stood on the bottom.

Four spacious rooms were discovered in the bottom of the hole, and many formations and small apertures.

In one of the largest room was an opening into a lower apartment, into which a line was dropped thirty feet, but which was not explored.

It is supposed that this apartment is much larger than the first, and preparation is being made to make a full and complete search of the cave.

One of the strangest peculiarities is the deafening noise from rushing water in the bowels of the earth.

Private Patent Pizzas.

Dr. William's Indian Pie Ointment will cure blind, bleeding and itching piles when all other ointments have failed. Hon. Judge W. F. Coons, Mayville, Ky., says: "I have suffered for years with piles, and have used every ointment I have ever heard of, and nothing has relieved me but Dr. William's Indian Pie Ointment and been cured, while every other remedy has failed." Every box is warranted. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail. Receipt of price, $15 cents and $1 per box. WILLIAMS' MFG. CO., Fonda, N. Y.

For sale by J. C. Peeler, whole sale and retail druggist.

HURRAH FOR THE "WORLD'S MARKETS!"
Chicago Tribune—Women in Western Andalusia earn sixty cents a week.

LONG EARED LISTENERS.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.—The Democratic Tariff smashers listen in vain for applause from the "tolling millions."

A SUBSTITUTE.

Washington Post.—In order to satisfy her desire for blood Lilakalani might come over and secure a job in a Chicago abattoir.

ONE CAUSE FOR GRATITUDE.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.— Providence has tempered the winter to the victims of a Democratic Administration.

CAN'T DROP IT.

Kinston Freeman.—The Democratic organs are now recommending the Administration to drop the Hawaiian business.
It would be as easy to drop a live electric wire.

MALE COSTUME.

London Truth—Ouid describes the nineteenth century clothing of an Englishman as "the most frightful, grotesque and disgraceful male costume which the world has ever seen."

CAUSES OF A GREAT CHANGE.

Chicago Tribune—Among the causes that have led to the total appearance of the Democratic majority in Illinois may be mentioned Alteid Blount and Cleveland. This is the A B C of the whole matter.

GOOD FIGHTING GROUND.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat—Chicago will be good fighting ground for the Republican hereafter. They have wiped out the beastly old time Democratic Majority, and have reduced the plurality to between 1,100 and 1,200. The next election is likely to put it on the list of Republican cities.

TAKE NO STEP BACKWARD.

Madison Courier—A repeal of the standard time law and a return to the honorable time might be made if the Populists had a majority in the present Ohio Legislature, but it is hard to anticipate that a Republican Legislature is composed of Rip Van Winkles, gasteroids of relics of the salaried ages.

WHEN UNCLE SAM SPEAKS.

Cincinnati Star.—The hand was the hand of Uncle Sam, but the voice was the voice of Goyer, and when it said, "Mr. Doe, come down," he came not.
Presently a voice will say, "Grover, come down," and he will not stand on the order of descent, but descend at once. It will be the voice of Uncle Sam this time, and no mistake.

AGGRAVATING THE OFFENSE.

New York Advertiser.—The public does not want any cipher dispatches about Hawaiian matters at this crisis. The news brought by the Corse belongs to the country and not to Mr. Cleveland.
If this Government has aided and abetted the re-establishment of a degraded monarchy it will not lessen public indignation to hold back news of it.

JUDGE WANAMAKER'S PROVERBS.

New York Press.—The little men in politics ain't without their uses.

Every time a new State comes into the Union the Amerink eagle roosts a notch higher.

Off is like a street car; when a man catches it he sits down and rests.

All the good Congressmen ain't dead.

The Tariff braves as much as it makes.

A tax on incomes is liable to increase the crop of liars.

They ought to be a tax on ignorants in this country.

THE YEAR IN RANKING CIRCLES.

Chicago Tribune—During the year ending last October 110 new National banks have been organized with an aggregate capital of $11,230,000. The entire number now in operation is 3,796, more than a quarter of which are in the eleven States named as follows: Pennsylvania, 399; New York, 334; Massachusetts, 365; Ohio, 344; Texas, 222; Illinois, 213; Iowa, 169; Kansas, 137; Nebraska, 135; Indiana, 114; Michigan, 100; and New Jersey, 99. The increase was smaller than that for any other year since 1881. The number of 46 in liquidation at the close of the term has been twice exceeded in the preceding seven years—namely, by 50 in 1890 and 53 in 1892, but the 67 insolvent institutions of the year ending October 110, 1893, is which is the total for the years 1887 to 1892 inclusive. The entire number of National banks which have passed into the hands of receivers since the beginning of the system, February 25, 1862, is 218, and more than a quarter of the list went into insolveney in the year ending two months ago. These facts attest the terrible character of the financial stringency which was engineered by the banks, as they were heavy sufferers by the infliction.
But the fact that 40 new incorporations were applied for during the last six months of the year under review shows that the adverse conditions did not prevent a part of the expansion of banking facilities demanded by the constant growth of the country.

A SURE PANACEA.

Hartford Courant.—Kill the Wilson bill and there will be plenty of money in Treasury without increasing the debt of the country.

A FACILE ARTIST.

Washington Post.—Perched on the tail to those persons who are interested in political lightning changes.

THE BOURBON REACTION.

AN EXPRESSIVE HEADLINE.

Mitchell Chapel Meeting.

Saturday evening and yesterday were great days for Mitchell's Chapel. Several conversations, a great many calls for prayer and four additions to the Services each night this week at 6:30.
Some unable to find seats last evening were turned away. Seats will be put in to accommodate all. Let all Christians pray for Baptism of Holy Spirit on the service to-night.

LEWISBURG.

The ladies of the Baptist Church of Lewisburg give a sum of $1000 next Thursday evening to the Masonic Temple for the purpose of raising money to help build a parsonage for the Baptist Church. This is a most worthy cause, and the good people should turn out and see that it is a success in every particular.

REDFORDVILLE.

The war is over. The Trustees have gone into winter quarters and Mary D. Herbert has taken possession of the schoolroom, with an attendance of six per day, quite a discount from the number of Miss Stubbfield's enrollment.

There is a greater amount of sickness in the Orangeburg Province than is known for a number of years. The grip and pneumonia are reigning with supreme power, and in some cases have conquered medical skill and turned the spout over to death.

One of the saddest scenes that was ever looked upon by the citizens of this neighborhood was that of the burial of Mrs. Edward Cooper and her son Thomas at the Orangeburg Cemetery. Mrs. Cooper was about 60 years of age, and was a known and respected lady of the Orangeburg vicinity. Tom was a young man about 30 years of age, and a respected member of the Orangeburg community. Both will be greatly missed by their many friends, and we are sure THE LEDGER will join with us in extending our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

THE Ewing Fair Company of Fleming county has been incorporated.

Or all the nice things that the jewelers of Mason county keep, Ballenger certainly has it finest. His stock is not mingled with any shabby or trashy stuff, and if you get it of him you are getting the best. Give him a call.

GEORGE CRAWFORD and J. S. McClurg have formed a partnership at Crawford's old stand, corner Lee and Second streets, and are prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing and wood work. In addition to all the other latest improvements they have a complete set of stable stocks.

During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Coach Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than any other cough medicine. H. M. Bangs, Druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grip is much the same as a very severe cold, and requires precisely the same treatment. This Remedy is prompt and effectual and will prevent any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. For sale by J. Reynolds, Druggist.

For Sale.
A small stock of Millinery Goods with a good established cash trade. Good opportunity for dressmaking. For particulars address Mrs. M. F. SUIT, Sardis, Ky.

All Along the Line is heard praise of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. Mrs. Hale, of Cincinnati, writes that she suffered five years with varicose veins and twinning sores on her legs, and was completely cured by its use. Dr. F. F. Fyffe, Salisbury, Vt., writes: "We cannot live without it; it is the only salve that will not burn or hurt any part of the body; it is the only ointment in the world for general use; 25¢ per box. For sale by Taylor & Reynolds, Druggists.

To Remedy Jumboots.
That petition which was some days ago sent afresh by Postmaster Cox of Cox's Landing, O., asking Congress to abolish jumboots upon the Ohio river, has reached Portsmouth, and has now nearly 500 signers.

The popular idea seems to have been struck, and the people are all responding in a rush.

The bill was left at Ironton several days ago, and everyone of any standing whatever met the petition kindly.

It's a good idea, and the quicker the law is passed the better for the public at large.

Still Binding Over.

Out in Carter county there is a good deal of violation of the revenue laws, judging by the number of arrests that are continually made.

Before the United States Commissioners last week at Ashland Bill Mullan and Art Hollan were held to the United States Court for selling whisky without a license.

Just how strong the proof was is not stated, but it is supposed to be a pretty stiff case.

This line of action has of late years been so shamelessly abused by the United States officers all over the state for the sake of fees that it has reached a point where nearly all such cases, unless the proof is positive, is looked upon by the public with suspicion.
